There are many ways to support NAHS PTO!

NAHS PTO exists to partner parents and teachers in support of New Albany High School students. Our goal is to promote and recognize citizenship and academic achievement.

These are the programs the PTO supports...

Success Cards - Recognizes students by rewarding good grades multiple times a year.

Awesome Attendance - Recognizes students by rewarding them for perfect attendance after each 9-weeks.

PAWS/Student of the Month - Recognizes students nominated by teachers for some “good” effort or action. Once a month, certificates are given to the selected students.

TRT - Recognizes students who have brought failing grades up to passing before the end of the grading period.

After Prom - Provides a fun event held after the Prom, including food, activities and prizes.

Senior Picnic - Provides a fun event held at the end of the school year, including food and activities.

Basket Program - Collects food for students/families in need to be given to them at holiday breaks.

Staff Appreciation - Provides food and treats to staff various times during the school year to show our appreciation.

Merchandise Sales - Provides opportunities to sell NAHS apparel during sporting events to raise money for PTO.

Dog Dads - Arranges “Dads” to help throughout the school year at sporting events and other large school events.
