FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Salvation Army Announces Pathway of Hope

Southern Indiana (April 29, 2022) – The Salvation Army of Southern Indiana announces the re-opening of the Pathway of Hope family support program. Pathway of Hope provides individualized, long-term case management services to families in Clark, Crawford, Floyd, Harrison, Scott, and Washington counties that are seeking improved financial stability and assistance accessing resources to support continued growth.

To qualify, families must

- live in Clark, Crawford, Floyd, Harrison, Scott, or Washington county
- have at least one child under the age of 18 living in the home
- be motivated and ready to commit to long-term change that leads to improved stability

The launching of this program is funded in part by Metro United Way. The long-term goal is to help families work toward home ownership.

For more information, contact Case Worker Leighanne at The Salvation Army at 812-944-1018.

About The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army, an evangelical part of the universal Christian church established in London in 1865, has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination for 130 years in the United States. Nearly 30 million Americans receive assistance from The Salvation Army each year through the broadest array of social services that range from providing food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach to the elderly and ill, clothing and shelter to the homeless and opportunities for underprivileged children. 82 cents of every dollar The Salvation Army spends is used to support those services in 5,000 communities nationwide.
